

Presenting a serious time with ...

Fun and Games Workshop

Join us for an morning of fun as we explore a variety of interactive games and activities designed to support the teaching and learning of phonograms, spelling rules and syllables in an Orton-Gillingham lesson.

Each participant will go home with over 20 ready to use games and activities that will surely add new intrigue to any lesson plan. Each game has been carefully developed with the Orton-Gillingham lesson plan in mind.

If you find it difficult to come up with creative ideas to multisensorially reinforce a new concept, roll up your sleeves and bring your enthusiasm on Saturday, May 12, 2007 to learn some great new games that you can take away and play during your next O-G lesson.

What: A morning of fun that will send you home with a new bag of tricks.

When: 9:00am until 12:00 pm on Saturday, May 12, 2007

Where: REACH OG Learning Center @ 850 West 15th St. in North Vancouver

Who: This workshop will be instructed by Corey Zylstra who is a practicing Orton-Gillingham Tutor and Tutor Trainer. Corey is an active member of the Canadian Academy of Therapeutic Tutors and has presented workshops in Canada and the U.S. on effective teaching strategies.

How (much): The $45. workshop fee includes the morning workshop and over 20 games and fun activities for you to take away!
